

EUMEDA

EU-MED African Relations and Cooperation Policies

II Level Master

Bridging Continents, Shaping the Future of Euro-Mediterranean and African Governance

European College of Parma Foundation

A Leading Post-Graduate Institute

A Post-graduate Institute, specialised in European and International Relations, aiming at preparing young graduates, from all over the world, in the fields of Law, Economics, and Policies of the European Union.

Top-Level Faculty

Learn from leading professors, EU and national officials, and experts in European affairs.

Tailored Training & Expertise

Proven experience in delivering customized courses, EU project management training, and specialized programs for institutions, authorities, and international organizations.

Course Overview

EU-MEDA is an advanced, interdisciplinary program offering in-depth knowledge and professional skills on EU and international governance, with a focus on Euro-Mediterranean and African cooperation policies. Combining legal, economic, and geopolitical perspectives, the Master equips participants with the analytical tools to tackle today's complex challenges in Europe's relations with its Mediterranean and African partners.

Key focus areas include: development cooperation, humanitarian action, conflict prevention, trade and agri-food systems, migration and mobility, energy and environmental governance, the Blue Economy.

Course Delivery Mode

Duration

 Frontal Lectures
January 2027 - April 2027

 Traineeship Period
May 2027 - July 2027

Total hours

 300 hours

Course language

 English (mainly)

Accreditation

The Master is recognized as a II Level Master's Programme and grants 60 ECTS.

Blended Format

The program is offered in a blended format, combining on-campus sessions with online learning.

Hands-On Approach

The program features workshops and labs focused on key soft skills such as negotiation, conflict management, data analysis, and project management.

Policy Lab

Engage in EU and International Organisations simulations to apply policy-design skills in real-world scenarios.

Highlights

Key Topics

Migration, Health, Food, Strategic Resources, Energy Markets and Blue Economy

Career Focus

Training tailored for experts in EU–Africa cooperation, geopolitics, and investment

World-Class Faculty

Blending academic excellence with real-world expertise from international leaders

Practitioner Engagement

Continuous involvement of field experts in development cooperation

Career Opportunities

EU-MEDA graduates can pursue careers in:

- ➔ Institutions & Agencies - Policy Analyst or Project Officer roles at national, EU, and international level
- ➔ Private Sector - Strategy analysts and project management experts in energy, agri-food, and maritime industries
- ➔ NGOs & Cooperation - Specialists in migration, human security, and humanitarian aid
- ➔ Research - Geopolitical analysts in think tanks, academic careers

Who Can Apply

Target Audience

- Graduates (Master's degree or equivalent) in Law, Political Science, International Relations, Economics, Sociology, or related fields
- Young professionals seeking specialization in EU-Mediterranean and African relations
- Public officials and civil servants
- NGO professionals working in international cooperation

Fees

The program fee is €6,000, with flexible installment options available.

Scholarships are offered—please refer to the official Call for Applications for full details.

What Makes This Course Unique

EU-MEDA stands out for its interdisciplinary approach.

The program goes beyond traditional EU studies, focusing on External Action and real-world challenges in the Euro-Mediterranean and African Regions.

Through policy labs, workshops, and practitioner engagement, students gain practical skills and a global outlook that sets them apart in the job market.

*Step into EU-MEDA.
Shape the Euro-Med future!*

Get in Touch

 Email
info@collegioeuropeo.it

 Website
www.europeancollege.it

 Phone
+39 0521 20 75 25

Follow us

Supported by

CAMERA DI COMMERCIO
DELL'EMILIA

